THE DURKANT TRIAL.

Defense Has Not Given Up Hope of Proving an Alibi.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30 .- Since the adjournment of the Durrant trial last Friday the prisoner's attorneys have visited Cooper Medical College several times and have had frequent interviews with students, whom they will put on the stand in hope of bracing up the alibi which the defense is trying to establish. It is thought that several of the coilege boys will testify to having seen the accused between 1 and 2 o'clock on the afternoon of April 3. .8:00 a. m but if any will give evidence of the fact that Durrant was in the college until 3:30 on that afternoon it is not known. The attorneys for the defense are building on what E. A. Diggins will testify to. Diggins is a member of the sophomore class, but frequently attended the senior class lectures. There he met the defendant. The latter claims that he spoke to Diggins during a lecture on the afternoon that Blanche Lamont disappeared, but Diggins's nemory is rather hazy just at present. When proceedings are opened to-morrow Charles Lenahan will be called to the stand to tell of having taken a diamond ring, omewhat resembling the one worn by Blanche Lamont, to pawnbroker Oppenheim. At first a great deal of importance 33.50 Round Trip $3.50 was attached to this witness by the defense, but of late his testimony has lost weight, as he did not visit the store until the afternoon of April 13. Again, Lenahan does not bear the slightest resemblance to Durrant, and it is not possible that one could be mistaken for the other. Their dress was dissimilar, and in personal appearance they form a strong contrast on account of differences in size, build and

The attack on the preacher by attorney several people who testified at the preliminary examination feel anxious lest they should have the finger of suspicion pointed at them. One of these persons is Elmer Wolfe, who testified that he saw Durrant and Minnie Williams together after the Christian Endeavor meeting at Dr. Vogel's ouse. Not that he has any reason to fear instructions from the defense, but behe wanted to be ready for Durrant's lawyer in case they in any way tried to involve him in the murder of lanche Lamont. A few days ago Wolfe received an intimation that he might be drawn into the case. This was a surprise to him. He did not, however, stop to puzzle the whys and wherefores, but set right to work to-establish an alibi. This was easily done, but the young man was not satisfied. He kept on reviewing the month of April until he knew just where he was and what he did on the night Min-nie Williams met her fate. He went to the people he had been with that night and secured them as witnesses in the case if an attempt should be made to prove his alibitalse. Fortified with a record of his actions on the 3d and 12th of April, Wolfe is prepared to offset any attack or insinuation

Before the speaking began copies of telegrams from a number of gentlemen who ould not be present were read. The first of these was from Governor J. P. Altgeld and its ringing words called forth cheer after cheer. Other telegrams were from Jongressman George E. Adams, Senator Call, of Florida, and George R. Peck. The representatives of the various organizations which had selected committees to coperate in making the meetings a success were distributed between the two. Among these were the presidents, with committees from the following organizations: Loyal Legion, Confederate Association, G. A. R. laval Veterans, Society of the Sons of the levolution, Illinois State Federation of abor, twenty-five local labor organizations, ndard Club, Marquette Club, Kenwood b, Banjer's Club, Oakland Club, Illinois Club, Menoken Club, Italian residents, Scan mayian, German, Bohemian, Irish, Greek and African societies.

All of the speakers addressed both mee ings. They were Rev. F. W. Gunsaulus, W. Hines, Rev. P. S. Henson, John Mayo Palmer, Thomas B. Bryan, wm. E. Mason and E. B. Sherman. When Gonzales De Quesada, secretary of the Cuban revolu-tionary party of the United States, and Q. A. Zayas, another prominent Cuban, stepped on the platform at Central Music Hall, the enthusiasm of the audience knew no bounds and it was some minutes before order was restored. At this meeting Eugene Kaueffer played for the first time in pubic his new march, "Cuba Libra," introing the Cuban national air. Rev. Dr. W. Thomas read the resolutions which were adopted as by one mighty voice. The began with quoting the United States Declaration of Independence and continued as

His Chances of Recovery Very Slight -The President's Order Placing Gen. Schofield on the Retired List.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 .- The treasury officials exceeded even their own expectations to-day in their report of the alleged condition of the government's finances. Instead of a surplus of about $2,000,000 for the month, the excess of receipts over expenditures for the month is $3,175,040.10, and the deficit for the fiscal year, instead of being reduced to between $11,000,000 and $12,000,000, is scaled to $9,938,814.09. It will be better understood how such astonishing figures can be obtained when it is noted holding up pensions can be to assist the treasury in bolstering up its figures. The department will issue to-morrow an official statement setting forth its achievements for the month. This apparent plethora in the treasury is all the more absurd when the figures for the month's business are studied. As a matter of fact, the month of September, instead of being so satisfactory as the treasury statements would indicate, on the contrary, been eminently unsatisfactory, and it has only been by the most unscrupulous jugglery of the figures that these daily surpluses have been made to appear. The receipts for September have not nearly approximated the expectations of the treasury officials. They had hoped that they would certainly equal those of July and August, and possibly exceed them. The September receipts, on the contrary, have fallen about $2,000,000 below either July or August. The internal-revenue receipts are especially disappointing. They are $1,000,000 below those of July and do not equal those of August. The Internal Revenue Bureau confesses itself at a loss to account for the slender receipts from whisky. In spite of the fact that the tax under than it was under the McKinley law, the

As to-day marks the close of the first quarter of the fiscal year, some speculations as to the probable deficit for the year have been made. The receipts for the quarter have been $85,000,000, in round num bers, and the expenditures have been $96. 000,000. At this rate, the receipts for the year would be about $340,000,000, which would mean a deficit of about $20,000,000 for

Dr. Wales, ex-Surgeon-general of the navy and a long time friend of General Mahone, was sent for, but could not be found. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TIPTON, Ind., Sept. 30 .- After a long struggle the talley-sheet forgery case was ment. These were vital to the case and overruled the motion. The special venire of thirty-six talesmen was not drawn until noon. There are over one hundred and fifty witnesses subpoenaed, and it will take ten days to try the case. The public is aking great interest in the trial and the court room was crowded to-day. The history of last November's election scandal and the talley-sheet forgery is one that never will be forgotten in this county. For boldness, and the penitentiary chances taken, it equaled the Sim Cos case of Indianapolis in 1886. It became evident before the election that the Repub licans would elect their entire county ticket. To defeat this the leaders in the Democratic party inaugurated the most desperate method of campaigning ever concocted in Tipton county. When the returns began to come in on the morning after the election, every indication was, on the face of the returns, that the entire Republican county ticket had been elected. Excitement ran high until towards evening, when the Democrats came to the Republican headquarters for information as to their claim, A duplicate of the unofficial returns was given them. They disputed the election of the Republican candidates for Representative, clerk, auditor and one commissioner. THE SIM COY ACT.

That night Democratic inspectors were sent for and their tally sheets were taken to their headquarters where they were sub jected to the closest scrutiny. Late that night Republicans became suspicious that the tally sheets were being tampered with. and they openly charged the Democrats with altering returns. Every inspector was a Democrat, and when the official count was being made they violated all precedents by refusing the admittance of a single Republican or Populist, though both parties were making demands that committees be admitted to witness the count.

As was expected, the doctored "official" count elected the Democratic candidate for Representative. On the face of the tally sheets, a copy of which the Republicans took on election day, the Republican candidate had a clear plurality of ten votes. The election was then contested and the Republican candidate was seated.

At the time of the count every precaution was taken not to allow any information to leak out as to the results of the Democratic "official" count, and it was not known to the Republicans until the next day. Republicans claimed the election of their candidate for clerk by seven plurality, but the Democrats as positively claimed the election of their candidate by one. By an error in the unofficial memoranda the Republican candidate received nine votes more in one precinct than were Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Rev. Henry this mistake that saved his election. The votes from the Republican candidates and adding four to the Democratic candidate was to overcome the seven votes claimed by the Republicans. The contests were then filed, but all were dismissed and all those whose election appeared on the offi-cial count were permitted to take their
